BUNCO, anyone? (see www.buncorules.com/rules.html)
This year our preseason event will feature a fun evening playing bunco. Sandy McGregor, our former board member introduced the game to us and those who attended her event are now hooked on it. It is really easy to learn and is very entertaining. Bunco is a game of dice played in rounds. Players take turns rolling the dice and trying to accumulate as many points as possible to win each round. The game is played at tables of four in competing teams of two. Prizes will be awarded at the end of the game.
